Lecture 9:
Guest Speaker and Workshop

April 8, 2019

Overview

Course Administration

Guest Speaker

Good, Bad and Ugly

In-Class Workshop

Course Administration

1. This week: in-person consultations
2. Next week: no class
3. Then two more tutorial classes and presentations
4. Presentation dates are assigned: if your group is not grouped, let me know
5. Anything else?

Adam Bookman

Class 11, April 22: Good Bad and Ugly

Send by 9 am next Monday. Look for a scatter plot.

- ME
- ID

This Week's Good Bad and Ugly

- KE
- AF

Kami's Example

Trends in American Public Schooling Since 1970

Amanda's Example

Number of workers (in millions) who would benefit from increasing the New York state minimum wage to $15 by July 1, 2021

Indirectly affected
Directly affected

Total: 2.06
Total: 2.40
Total: 2.68
Total: 2.90
Total: 3.01
Total: 3.10
Total: 3.16 (36.6% of all workers

0.46
0.51
0.52
0.55
0.59
0.66
0.75

1.6
1.9
2.2
2.4
2.4
2.4
2.4

2016   2017   2018   2019   2020   2021
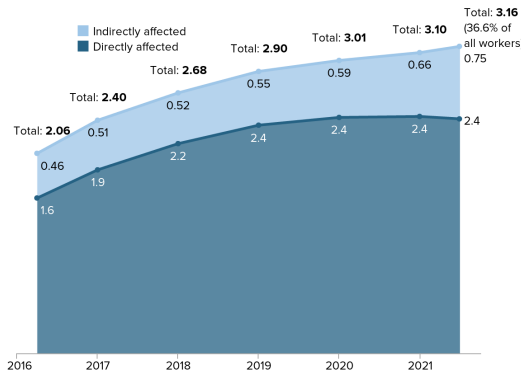

Source: EPI analysis of American Community Survey microdata, 2014

Economic Policy Institute

From here

In-Class Workshop

Recap Workshop Instructions

Now

- Each student should walk the group through their policy brief
- Group members should give feedback
- Too nice is not helpful

Recap Workshop Instructions

Now

- Each student should walk the group through their policy brief
- Group members should give feedback
- Too nice is not helpful

After class

- Write comments for each of the classmates that turned in a work product
- No work product, no comments required

See online instructions for naming conventions.

Next Lectures

- Next week: No class
- April 22: Scatter plots
  - Few, Chapter 11
  - Chang, Chapter 5
- Check presentation dates for group togetherness
- Policy brief due May 3 at 5 pm